

Being unwanted, unloved, uncared for, forgotten by everybody, I think that is a much greater hunger, a much greater poverty than the person who has nothing to eat.

Jesus Centres offer a wide range of support for all kinds of people: friendship and active listening; showers and washing clothes for people sleeping rough or in vulnerable accommodation; skills training and group activities; drop-in and mentoring schemes.

Other services include mums and toddlers groups, money advice, ex-prisoner support, and English classes. Thousands of people have already been touched by the work of Jesus Centres in Coventry, Northampton, and Central London, with work on a Jesus Centre in Sheffield due to start in 2010.

Please help us to reach our £1 million target in 2009 so we can help many more people through the work of the Jesus Centres.

“Five years ago I was homeless and on drugs. I went to the Bridge drop-in, in Coventry, and was told they could help me. A support worker there found me a flat which meant that I was able to have my son and daughter live with me again. My support worker visits me and gives me loads of emotional support and help with my finances. I've been clean from heroin for about three years now. I am so grateful for all the help I've received. ”

Katie

“I arrived in England a few years ago because I had become a Christian and things were difficult back home in a Muslim area. At the Jesus Centre they gave me food parcels and other basics. Then they managed to get me accommodation in a shared house with some other church members. I'm now a trained volunteer at the Jesus Centre and a member of the church. I really enjoy both and pray that my wife and kids can join me soon. ”
